

You have chosen to play our music in your ears in the hope I will come forward and speak to you today.
But I have nothing I want to share with you on particular. You know I am with you, working
with you from my home
here.

and

I have

where our relationship began, or at least, where you were aware of it first.
I said then that I would work with you forever I was needed. That remains so. You realised a butterfly yesterday. That was from me, and I
will send more gifts.
Please stay obedient.
I smile when I think about your
hang ups of wanting
to know my name.
I changed it some time

nothing more than the way of this life on earth and in heaven.

I send you peace.
