

think of a place and we're there in an instant. Well we could I suppose! But like we did on earth, we often enjoy the journey. But you have to understand, there is an order of doing things here that keeps continuity in place. Flitting here, there and everywhere is not acceptable behavior. Unless you're an angel! Though I've never seen one of those anyway.

Another common question asked by earth people is "So be warned. Do we have "they"? Yes we do, and its very wonderful too. As you men would know from your younger years, things, shall we say, can happen without the body needing to be present. But certainly, our love is to
