

I would like this opportunity to give praise and warmth to yourself and all of those that will read these words.

I am indeed residing, as you would call it, in the world that follows yours after your physical body is no longer required.

I am in admiration of all the beautiful people that have allowed their spirits and mind to be open to the experiences of my world. So many people live through their earth life as if blind. Oh yes, their eyes may transmit signals to their brains, but that really is limiting the possible visions.

I know that some of these followers will at some time in their lives believe that this work is a thankless task, but it is not. Each of you are changing, a lot and yourselves, but the hundreds of other lives around you. Your beliefs, your healing and your counsel works every time. Dismiss doubts of your value to your society. You are an important and valued ingredient.

There are countless souls this side that yearn to be heard by someone on earth. There is a constant flow of souls, as I describe them, as I describe myself, that just want their loved ones and their families to know "hey, I'm a 100, and I'm doing good."
When the time comes

that your medunas release the shackles of their own minds and stop filtering everything, communications between our worlds will flow in abundance and your world will become richer from the healing process it brings with it.

You are children of the greatest forces ever. Age is not measured in years. It's measured
in enlightenment terms.
Your true path may appear to be limited,

but believe me when I say that when you truly appreciate the Dimes power, you'll appreciate that time has nothing to do with life.

Sometimes earth dwelling means enjoyment and pleasure with pastimes and hobbies. Materialistic gains that do nothing other than inflate a leading ego.

Enjoyment is really about recognition of one's shape of being and understanding the vastness of the miracle of life.

Some say that life is all there is. They are wrong. The alternative to life is nothing and believe me when I tell you nothing does exist as a state of being.

Perhaps this is one
step too much for you to understand at this time, so I apologise if you are confused. Death does not exist. Nothing does.

You and everyone alive
will never need to understand nothingness.
It's not a state you will ever be in.

Just enjoy life, in the terms I have described it.
Keep doing those things that bring you enjoyment through the discovery of yourself.

May the Divine forces
remain with you.
That is all.
