

ANNY (PENelope) STAINFORTH

The freedom of expression is a faculty that all living matter on the planet has access to. The freedom to make choices in every aspect of life that it has. A plant can choose how it grows and where it clings to. A cat or a dog can choose how they want to react at any given moment. Mankind can choose any ex

