

Thank you for leading us in prayer. I believe you heard us all reaching it aloud.

That's another thing that people on earth would give little thought to - people in our world praying. Of course we do. Why shouldn't we? We're not exactly in heaven, as people tend to define it. We're continuing our individual ~~the~~ lives in an alternative state of being.

We too retain respect for the Divine, the God, the source, or whatever you're comfortable calling it.

As we tell people on earth so many times, life continues here as if nothing changed.

There were changes, obviously. But the way we have always lived on life is much the same, with a few automatic adjustments within us to adapt to this environment.

We're not a materialistic world. The need for things no longer exists. It's the same when people on earth come back from a shopping spree - They're all shopped out. We're always all-shopped out.

We're sometimes asked if we watch television or movies, or listen to the radio and so on. The plain answer is that we don't need to. Life in that sense is different. We have no need for filler entertainment.

We are always contented. Some of you might consider that boring or dull. Well dear friend, you've been away from home for a number of days, haven't you?

Have you felt the need to watch television or listen to a radio? Are you missing the experience. I hear you. No

As I said, our lives here are fulfilled. We don't need to worry about running out of energy or sleeping. It would serve no purpose. We do, however, spend time in silence and in a sort of state of rest, in the same fashion a lizard does, or a cat.

Everyone here loves life and feel blessed to have one. Some people, when they arrive here, first get a mix of extreme excitement, mixed with tears and emotions. But that state passes quickly and the way of life here soon becomes quite normal.

So when mediums pray, it would pay them well to listen to their inner spirit and occasionally they will be able to hear their people this side praying with them, word for word.

It's sad when people on earth grieve about death as they think of it. That death does not exist. Let me repeat that - death does not exist.

Thank you for the prayer and do have a lovely day where you are.

Amen.
